

William J. Jones, Jr. Memorial Award Application

Established 2015

Mr. William Jones was an educator for forty-two years serving the Spring Grove and Mahanoy Area School Districts. He served in the United States Army and graduated from East Stroudsburg Teacher's College. During his thirty-eight year tenure at Mahanoy Township, and then at Mahanoy Area he taught elementary physical education and high school health education. Mr. Jones coached football, basketball, wrestling, and track and field. He also served as a bus driver, assistant athletic director and recreation director. As recreation director he instituted, supervised and facilitated many programs, including boys' intramural basketball, women's volleyball, adult swim, summer swim lessons, elementary track and field meets, elementary wrestling, roller skating trips, Teen Canteen activities, playground recreation, and Summer Camp at Lakewood Park.

An award will be given annually to graduating high school seniors of Mahanoy Area High School and selected by the committee based on the listed criteria.
